

Open Water Faith

Prepared faith must become transferable faith.

Personal Reflection

- Is my faith prepared — or just assumed?
- If someone watched my daily life, what would they see?
- Who is learning faith because of me right now?

The Fishing Question

- Am I anchored close to the shore — safe and predictable?
- Where might God be calling me into deeper water this year?
- What is one conversation I need to start?

The Repurposing Question

- What experience has God given me that could encourage someone else?
 - What 'tool' in my life has been sitting unused?
 - How can I allow God to repurpose this season for kingdom impact?

“This year doesn’t belong to chance. It belongs to preparation.”

Take one intentional step this week. Pull up the anchor. Share your story. Move into deeper water.
